TAKE A TRIP

The prospectors at Diggers Gold Mine were loading their hard-won gold onto the stagecoach.

"Just a few more sacks and we'll have enough for our holiday in Silver City!" said their leader, Zack.

THE MOST FAMOUS OUTLAW IN THE WEST, ZACK, WAS PLANNING TO STEAL THE GOLD.

As the last sack was loaded, he leaped onto the stagecoach.

"Ye-ha! Thanks for the hard work, suckers! I'm off to spend the loot!" he yelled.

He tipped his food supplies from the mine's old water barrel and took out a box of sugar lumps.

"No pesky bush whackin' varmint gets my gold!" said cunning Zack.

"Our gold's gone and you're thinking about food?"

shouted the miners in disbelief.

"Cool it and watch,
you dozy diggers!"

yelled Zack, loading the sugar into the mine's old cannon.

"Okay, Pete! One lump or two?"

BOOM!!

The sugar lumps flew from the gun and landed just ahead of the stagecoach.

YUM YUM!

The horses couldn't resist. They pulled up short and were soon crunching away on the cubes.

"Come on,
you no-good nags!"
yelled Pete. But it was useless.
The horses were too busy tucking into the sugar.

Hearing the cannon, Fort Apache's cavalry troopers were soon on the scene to take care of Prairie Pete and return the gold to the miners.

"Nice work, Zack. We can book our holidays in Silver City after all!"

laughed the miners.

Cavalry to the rescue!!

And Prairie Pete?

"He's goin' to town ~~in~~ well.... to the jail house!"

Gggrrrh!

ALL ABOUT GOLD

Zack and his Western pals knew all about gold digging and joined the GREAT GOLD RUSH OF 1848. But how much do you know about gold?

"Howdy! I'm Zack. I've made a good livin' from gold!"

Gold has always been one of the most precious metals. In fact so precious that it is used to crown Kings and Queens. But where does gold come from?

Gold is found in two different forms - 'Vein gold' and 'Eluvial gold'. 'Vein gold' is deposits of gold in rock - known as the source. 'Eluvial gold' is the flakes of gold carried downstream in sand and gravel of stream and river beds.

THE GREAT GOLD RUSH OF 1848

In the mid 1800's thousands of folk like Zack flocked to America's West Coast. They packed their belongings onto wagons and travelled to California. They wanted to make their fortunes by 'striking gold' and became known as 'prospectors' because they went looking for gold.

Once there, they marked their territory with a wooden stake - this was known as a 'claim' - and this area claimed by them could only be mined by them. To discover if it was rich with gold they had to pan for it.

Panning for gold is a washing and swirling process of gravel and sand thought to hold the precious metal. Because gold weighs the heaviest this enables it to settle at the bottom of the pan.

GOLD PANNING WITH LEGO

Because so many prospectors travelled West, new settlements grew - just like LEGO WESTERN's Silver City (6765) - where large mines were sunk to reach deeper into the ground for more gold.

Luckily LEGO Western Digger's Gold Mine (6761) is protected by the cavalry to ward off any baddies trying to steal the precious hoard!

Experience the thrill of gold panning at LEGOLAND Windsor and imagine you're a prospector. You come away with a special gold medallion!

WELSH GOLD

You can pan for real gold at Welsh Gold in Dolgellau. The mine has been working since the 1600's and became one of the richest in Britain.

And did you know it also has a royal connection? It's a tradition in this country for members of the Royal Family to have their wedding rings made from pure Welsh Gold!

If you visit Welsh Gold you can learn how to pan for gold and any you find, you may keep. You can take an underground tour of the Gwynfynydd Mine, mine mineral samples from the gold vein, see the machinery in action, see how rock is blasted and if you are lucky, get to fire the exploder!

FOOLS GOLD

'Fools Gold' is a worthless metal called iron pyrite which looks like gold. Many of the Gold Rush prospectors were fooled into believing they had 'struck gold'!

GOLD COMPETITION

Here's your chance to win lots of great LEGO Western prizes.

Three first prize winners will each receive a LEGO Western Fort Apache (6769).

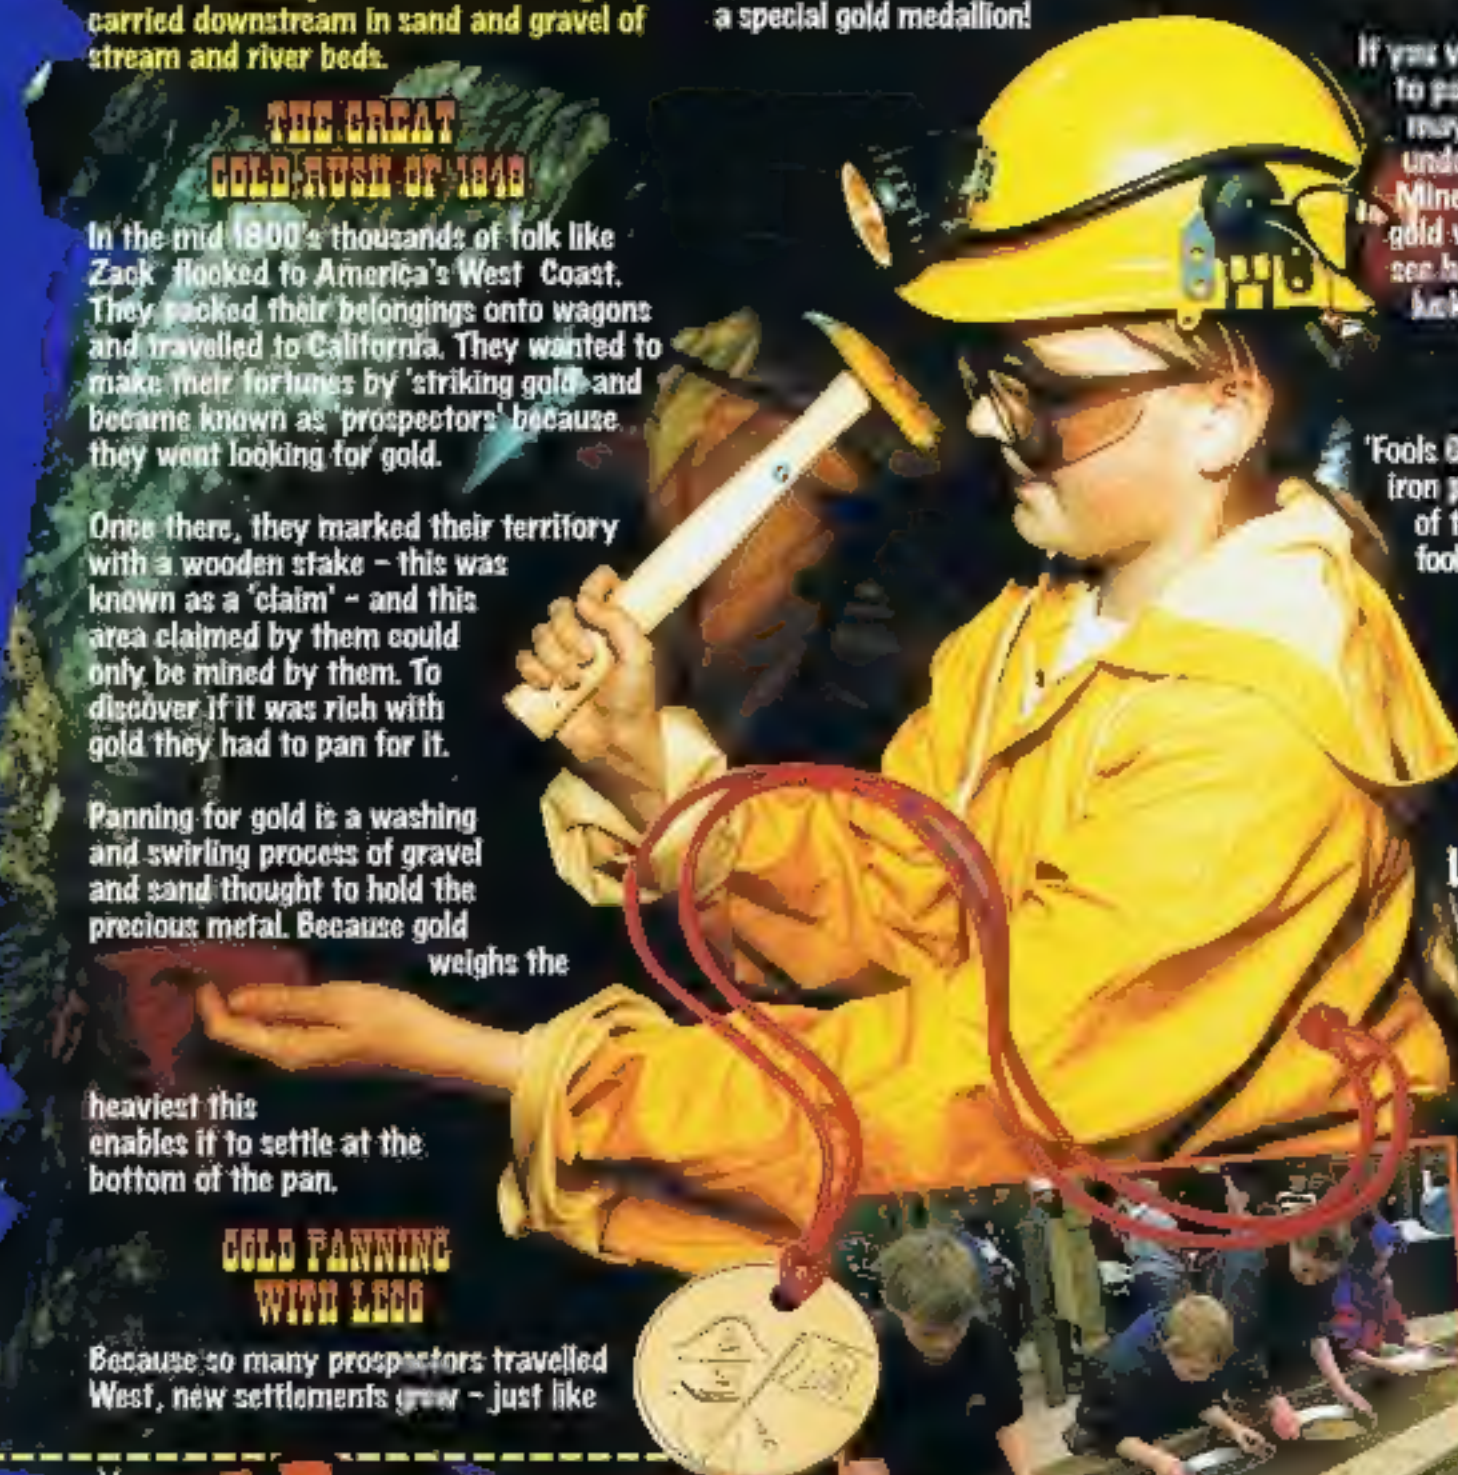

There are also ten runners-up prizes of LEGO Western Digger's Gold Mine (6761) and 15 3rd prizes of LEGO Western Rustler's Retreat sets (6712).

All you have to do is answer correctly these questions:

- 1 What's the other name for 'Fools Gold'?
- 2 What are people who look for gold called?
- 3 Who tried to steal Zack's gold?

Send your answers with your name, address and membership number on a postcard to:

MEET... A COOL NEW TEAM

TIM

Before becoming a Time Cruiser Tim was just an ordinary kid. He became a LEGO Club Master Builder and started helping Dr Cyber create wacky new time machines built from LEGO pieces found in different time zones.

INGO

Always ready for monkey business in time travel

WAGGO

The wacky cybernaut, Dr Cybers first invention with 'fantastic plastic' discovered the secrets of time travel in an ancient map, and has been cruising the centuries ever since! Working in his dual-purpose home and laboratory, the Labo, he has built a range of cool time-tripping vehicles to hop across the years!

Top of the range is the Flybo - a flying, sailing, wheeling object ideal for long-haul time travel. Then there's the Navigator, with essential equipment for trips to foreign lands and distant time zones! Shorter hops in time can be handled in Tim's favourite, the Scooty, with its twin propellers!

And after a hard day's time travel, the Labo - with its flying objects, galaxy watches and all manner of time travel equipment - is the ideal place to relax and plan more adventures!

HYPNO WHEEL COMPETITION

★ Can you find how many hypno wheels are hidden on the pages of this issue of Bricks'n'Pieces? You could be one of 5 lucky winners of a Time Cruiser set.

Send your name, address, membership No. and answer on a postcard to:

Tim was doing his homework at Dr Cyber's house, the Labo.

"I've got to draw a dinosaur for my homework and I just can't make it look right!" said Tim.

"I've got an idea!" said Dr Cyber.

Dr Cyber, Tim and their companions, Wacco and Ingo were soon aboard the Flybo and heading back to the time of the dinosaurs!

"Yes...and that's a real pterodactyl coming to get us..."

LOOK OUT!
yelled Dr Cyber.

The flying reptile dived down on the friends, grabbing Ingo in its beak. But Wacco the robot sprang into action.

"Leave it to me!" said the robot, taking a spare wheel from the Flybo and hurling it into the air. The wheel hit the pterodactyl on the head and the creature dropped Ingo in surprise.

The monkey fell to earth safely, but as his friends checked that he was all right, they heard the sound of heavy footsteps.

"The stegosaurus has come to see what the fuss is about!" yelled Dr Cyber. "Let's head for home!"

Safely back at the Labo, the travellers sat down to watch television.

From the set came the voice of a news reader

"Scientists are baffled by a 140 million year old wheel found inside the stomach of a fossilised pterodactyl!"

"That silly creature decided to eat our wheel instead of Ingo!" laughed Dr Cyber. "It's a good job we've got a spare here at the Labo!"

PRIZE WON BY LLOYD

UP, UP AND AWAY!

with LEGO Club member Lloyd Thomas!

Imagine you're a pilot patrolling the skies to help Merseyside Police catch criminals!

What a fantastic adventure that would be - as eight-year-old Lloyd Thomas found out when he visited Liverpool Airport for a great prize day out.

LEGO Club member Lloyd of showed Lloyd and his family around the helicopter and talked through the vital procedures which make sure they and the aircraft are ready for action, 24 hours a day, to take to the air in minutes - just like the LEGO Police Response Unit (Town range 6545).

Captain John showed the boys all the special equipment on board the helicopter including the 'Sky Shout' loud hailer and the 'Night Sun' spotlight that shines as bright as 30 million candles.

They also saw the special thermal camera that takes pictures of what's Minera, North Wales, won top prize in our 'Choppers Away' competition to visit the Airport for a special tour of Police Helicopter, Mike 1.

Lloyd took his brother Jay and his Mum and Dad along with him and they all took turns to sit behind the controls of the amazing 36ft.

happening below - helping the police to help the public!

Just when it was time to leave, one of the Airport's bright yellow Fire Engines pulled up next to Mike 1. Lloyd and Jay were invited to step aboard!

The brothers pulled on the safety helmets and with no time to spare, the engine sounded its siren and whizzed them off for an exciting spin, spraying water from the huge water jet as it went!

twin-engined aircraft.

Merseyside Police Pilot Captain John and policeman Constable Dave

Lloyd had only one comment to make at the end of the day. "It's been absolutely brilliant"

James Varnay will receive a Golden Brick Award for his models of a Skier and a Chinese restaurant.

Most of you have probably seen the film. We like this picture of 'Willy' sent in to us by David Smith, aged 7. (Membership No. 158068).

Darren Target, from Northwich, is mad about the Police. He built this 'Gun Mobile' so he built this 'Gun Mobile' for them. We think they'll like it!

This model, called the 'LEGO Voyager', was built by Richard Strum, aged 9, from Northwich (Membership No. 172481).

Teamwork looking... also printed the backside... Close, etc.

William Stupples sent us this picture of a model he built. He calls it his 'Weird Fish'.

Andrew Saunders (Membership No. 48525) built this model called 'Leo and LeoQ' when he was 9 years old. A Golden Brick is on its way. Well done Andrew!

Fred Cook, from St Albans (Membership No. 157058) built this very strange looking model of a fish. Well we think it's a fish. Well done Fred!
